WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, JANUARY 13, 1873.

EVENING STAR.

This excellent COUGH SYRUP has now been used Washington News and Gossip. in this community for upwards of five years with never-failing success. It is easily administered, never-failing success. It is easily administered, being pleasant to the taste, and given in small doses, teaspoonful for an adult. It will positively and primarently cure all the various affections of the Throat and Lungs, as Coughs, Colds, Asthma. Croup, Influenza, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption. Also, for the relief of patients in advance distages of consumption. These cases, though we do not claim it will cure, it will certainly relieve to such an extent that it will be considered a blessing indeed by such patients. Confident that you will find it just as represented, we invite a trial.

THE CALDWELL INVESTIGATON .- The Senate committee on privileges and elections met at ! o'clock this morning and resumed their investigation into the circumstances of the election of Senator Caldwell, of Kansas. Several witnesses were examined, among them being Mr. Len T. Smith, Senator Caldwell's partner in the banking business, who testified that an arrangement was made between Senator Caldwell, Gov. Carney and himself by which Governor C. was to withdraw from the Senatorial contest for the sum of $15,000; and that this sum was paid Governor Carney by Caldwell. After the election Smith paid Governor Carney $7,000 more as re-imbursement for expenditures made by Governor C. during the election.

AFFAIRS IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY-Capture of Squaws, and Release of Mexican Captives .-A gentleman writing from Fort Sill, Indian territory, says that on the 6th instant an escort of the 4th cavalry brought into that post four Comanche squaws captured by General Mc-Kenzie in his recent fight in Texas. These squaws are all relatives of "Horse-back," a Comanche chief, who has been very energetic in returning captives since the squaws were taken. four white boys; twenty-seven mules and twenty-two horses, stolen by the Indians, having been returned. In consideration of this action, General Augur, commanding the department of Texas, decided to return to "Horse-back" his squaw relatives. There were also brought into Fort Sill on the same day by Comanches three Mexican boys captured from Texas in 1871. They are named, respectively, Seferino Trevi-no and Juan and Jose Maria Buenavidas, and will be sent to San Antonio to be returned to their friends in February.

The U. P. R. R. Investigation.

PROCEEDINGS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE NO. 2. The Wilson special Union Pacific Railroad committee met at half-past ten o'clock this morning; all present but Mr. Sumner.

Mr. Wilson said that in accordance with the vishes of the committee he had seen the Attorney General, and stated to him that they desired to have present the two attorneys to be appointed under the Randall resolution. The Attorney General informed him that such attorneys would be appointed without delay, and attend the meetings and aid in the investigation. There would be no witnesses here for examination to day, but would be to-morrow.

Mr. Shellabarger said he would be willing the ounsel should take the lead in the investigation. Both the counsel and the committee have the same end in view, viz.: the recovery of the rights of the government. Mr. Wilson said that when the attorneys should come before the committee they could make a request of that kind. Mr. Hear thought the committee should carefully avoid giving up the control of the investigation to the attorneys; but they could invite them to make suggestions as to the line of examination to be adopted: Mr. Shellabarger said that perhaps that would be the better way.

Mr. Hoar offered a resolution that the counsel to be appointed by the President of the United States, under the House resolution of Janury 6, 1873, be requested to be present at the examina-tion of witnesses by the committee, and make such suggestions and render such aid as may be in their review. in their power.

Mr. Slocum said he would like to have the at-been wronged. He did not see that any wrong had been done. He would like to hear from the chairman, whom they were going to sue.

Mr. Hoar said the House had affirmed the road war in default, and, further, that owing to the enormous profits of the credit mobilier, the obligations of the road to the government had not been paid; and after that had appointed this committee to find out if what the House had affirmed was true. Mr. Slocum asked whether there was a single instance in which the Union Pacific railroad had failed to comply with its contract with the government.

Mr. Wilson remarked that that was what they were going to investigate.

The resolution was adopted, and the committee adjourned until to-morrow.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE OF A MURDERER.—
John R. Johnson, who was found guilty on Saturday of murder in the first degree, at New Haven, Conn, attempted suicide in his cell yesterday by bursting an artery. He was found in time to save his life.

TERRIBLE AND FATAL EXPLOSION ON A STEAMER.—The boiler of the steamer Julia St. Clair exploded near Eufaula, Ala., Saturday night, scalding thirteen persons, five or six fatally. DOUBLE EXECUTION IN GEORGIA .- Burns and Dunstan, colored, convicted of rape, were hung at Jefferson, Ga., last Friday. Burns confessed his crime, but Dunstan asserted his innocence.

Society.

Saturday was the most brilliant day of the past week. The weather was fine from early morn to dewy eve, but we cannot say that this fact was apparent to many of the fashionables of Washington. To them the brightness of the day begun in the afternoon, when, refreshed after the ball at Annapolis and other entertainments here, the enjoyments of the day com-

- Firstly, there was the excitement of Mrs. Grant's first reception. She and her daughter, together with their guest, Miss Borie, showed no traces of fatigue, though they did not reach home from Annapolis until noon. Mrs. Grant was dressed very richly and becomingly in pearl-colored silk. Miss Grant wore black silk with vest and sleeves, trimmed with pink silk embroidered in vines of black. Miss Borie wor a combination of green with rose color. Mrs Fish and the President stood with the receiving party, and the visitors, whom General Babcock introduced, were received by a kindly shake of the hand and a few pleasant words of welcome. Perhaps on no occasion has an afternoon reception at the White House been so brillian and attended by so many elegant people Every one rejoiced to see the sweet kindly face of Mrs. Ogle Tayloe, and all were glad that she had emerged from her retirement and visited the house where her noble husband had been the welcome guest of so many Presidents. Cabinet ministers and their wives all called during the afternoon. Senators and Representa-tives were out in force, and all the distinguished strangers availed themselves of this opportunity to see the family of the President. It was the first occasion when Miss Grant formally received with her mother, and she passed safely through the ordeal of criticism. General Hor-ace Porter received a kindly welcome from host of friends, and many were the regrets that he was no longer one of the household. Later in the evening the gas was lighted in all the drawing rooms, and the scene was enhanced in brilliancy. The east room was well filled with promenaders and persons resting on the soias. All admired the rich crimson carpet that now covers the floor of that magnificent room. To the foot it seems like downy velvet.

-From the White House the crowd wended its way to the mansion of Senator Stewart. This house is only in size inferior to the White House. There are rich carpets, gilt furniture, and all the appliances of refinement and wealth Mrs. Stewart is a handsome matron, whose beaming face indicates happy domestic ties. As usual, she was elegantly dressed. Miss Stewart was suffering with hoarseness from cold, but smiled sweetly on all. Mrs. Stewart's sister. Mrs. Cary, made herself agreeable to all the visitors. The Senator was at home on the occasion, and seemed to greatly enjoy the ovation that was being paid to his family. There was dancing and refreshments.

-Mrs. Carlisle second matinee dansante wa brilliant, as all her entertainments are. Having recovered from her late indisposition, she and Mr. Carlisle added the charm of their presence to those of the ladies who presided the Saturday previous. Mrs. Wright, Miss Preston and Miss Hopkins being relieved in a measure from redance, and thereby make happy the host of young gentlemen who attend these receptions As usual, the toilets of the ladies were elegant Mrs. Carlisle wore green silk, handsomely frim-med with green velvet and black lace; Mrs. Wright, black, mixed with white; Miss Preston. pale blue, with the facings and trimmings of the faintest tinge of pink. Miss Hopkins were a pearl satin overdress richly trimmed, and silk

- Mrs. Baxter and Mrs. Mary Clemmer Ame had a very large and distinguished rece tion. The handsome, cheerful parlor, with its flowers and pretty things, seems so homelike and inviting that it is difficult to resist so many combined attractions and to leave in time to see a that is going on elsewhere.

- In the evening Mrs. Dahlgren gave a dinner party, which was attended by the Marquis and Madame de Noailles, the Secretary of the Navy Senator and Mrs. Sherman, Senator and Mrs. Stockton and their guest, Mrs. Green, of Eliza-beth, New Jersey, and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Kennedy. Later in the evening a fing guest joined the dinner party and passed a pleasant evening, being agreeably entertained by Mrs Dahlgren and her son, Lieut. Goddard.

-Blacque Bey and his beautiful wife gave their usual Saturday evening musicale. Al lovers of good music and agreeable society appreciate these receptions.

-There was a large crowd at the house of Mr. Horatio King. His guests were entertained by Professor Hilgard reading a poem older than those of Homer.

- Miss Clymer gave a small party on Saturday evening to a young friend who is visiting her. - The entertainments for the present week are numerous. General and Mrs. Hunter give Miss Grant a german to-morrow evening; Mrs. Eames gives her daughter a ball on Wednesday: Lady Thornton's first reception will be on Thursday, and on Friday Senator and Mrs. Frelinghuysen give a ball, and Mrs. Russell

-Miss Jeffries will hold a reception Wednes day afternoon from 2 to 5 at the residence of Gen. Jeffries, Scott Place. She will be assisted by Misses Bapley, Abbott and Forney.

-A morning cotemporary, in announcing a sociable at Masonic Temple this evening by the New Jersey association, is a little ahead of time, as our New Jersey friends, though intending to give such an entertainment, have not yet fixed upon the date.

- Speaker Blaine's receptions will be held on the following Friday evenings: January 17, February 7, and February 21. - Mrs. Blaine's receptions will be held every Wednesday afternoon, from 2:30 till 5 o'clock, beginning January 8. -Mrs. Governor Cooke will receive on Tuesdays from 2 to 5 p. m., beginning Tuesday, January 7th.

IRON IN VIRGINIA.—The Charlottesville (Va.) Chronicle says: "We learn with much pleasure that parties exploring this county in search of iron ores have recently developed a deposit on the lands of Dr. John R. Woods, and there is every reason to believe the vein continues through the adjoining lands of John Wood, ir.

and perhaps on to adjacent lands. These dis-coveries are within one-half a mile of Ivy depot, on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad." "WALNUT KERNELS."-During the past year 2,000 pounds of walnut kernels were shipped by rail from Broadway depot in Rockingham county. They sold at 30 cents per pound, bringing the handsome sum of $600 for these small and seemingly worthless things. The Register says: These walnut kernels were gathered mainly by poor children in Brock's Gap who had no other way in which to turn an honest penny. They are used in making candy. JUDGMENT AGAINST A BANK RECEIVER.

Judge Batt gave judgment yesterday for Jos. H. Havens, who sued the receiver of the Central bank of Brooklyn for $3,125, the amount of a check deposited for collection in the bank the day betore its failure. The ground taken was that in receiving the check without disclosing the condition of the bank, the officers obtained no title to the check.

BANCROFT, now travelling in the east, has mounted an ample beard, liberally sprinkled with the frost of life's autumn, in which, at Constantinople, he called on the venerable Patriarch of the Greek church, now 92 years of age. The next day the patriarch, with a beard as long as his own, or longer, came in state to return the visit, and the eastern and western grey beards again met.

How to Do it.—A man with several marriagable daughters, all under twenty-three years of age, having bought a house in a fashionable quarter, writes to be informed concerning the best way of gaining an entrance into the best families in the neighborhood. The easiest and most direct way would seem to be by the front door, but he might tunnel under the sidewalk and come up through the cellar.

THE MISSOURI SENATORSHIP.—A democratic senatorial caucus was held in Jefferson city, Mo., Saturday might, and after eight unsuccessful ballots adjourned till to-day. On the eighth ballot the vote stood:—Blair, 24; Phelps, 27; Bogy, 26; Anderson, 12; Napton, 6; West, 7; Rollins, 4; Reynolds, 1; Edwards, 1; Coleman, 1. Sixty votes are necessary to a choice. THE ICE HARVEST ON THE HUDSON.—Nearly seven thousand men and one thousand horses are gathering ice on the Hudson, and it averages eleven inches in thickness. About 9,500 tons are gathered a day. The crop will reach 1,500,000 tons, and will be gathered by the 1st of February.

February. CAR CONDUCTORS' STRIKE.—All the conduc-tors on the Harlem railroad have tendered their resignations in consequence of an order requi-ring them to keep check books of their receipts, and give a punched ticket to each passenger paying fare.

THE CREDIT MOBILIER INVESTIGATION Proceedings of the Committee To-day.

The special committee of the House of which Judge Poland is chairman to investigate the credit mobilier charges resumed its session this morning, and Hon. H. L. Dawes, of Massachusetts, being present to make his statement was sworn. The following is the SWORN STATEMENT OF MR. DAWES. I have been ready at all times, whenever it aculd be desired by the committee, to make a full statement of whatever connection I have ever had with the credit mobilier, and regret that I have not had an earlier opportunity. was never the owner of any of the stock of that corporation, yet I did agree to take ten shares of that stock, but the agreement was reseinded before the stock was transferred to me, and it never was transferred. At the commencement of the session in De-cember, 1867, I had due me at the sergeant-atarms' office $1,000 of my salary, that I had then no occasion to use. I asked a colleague of mine Mr. Washburn, with whom I was rooming at the time, what I could best do with it, and he advised me to purchase with it a bond of the Iowa Cedar Rapids Railroad of Mr. Oakes Ames, saying that he had been purchasing of him a large amount of these bonds for 90 cents on the dollar for his bank, and he thought it an excellent investment. I accordingly went to Mr. Oakes Ames and asked him to sell me such a bond as he had been selling Mr. Washburn. He replied that he had not got any of those bonds then, for he had sold them all but he had something else as good, and he thought better. He would let me have for my $1,000 ten shares of credit mobilier stock. I said to him I did not know anything about that stock, and asked him to tell me about it. He replied: "It is a Pennsylvania corporation which had the contract to build the Pacific railroad; it is a good thing, and I think it will make money out of it At any rate I will guarantee you ten per cent on your money, or if you don't want your stock at any time I will pay you back your money and ten per cent interest." I told him I would think of it and let him know. I then inquired of Mr. Alley about this stock, and he said it was good stock but he did not think it was as good so Mr. Amerikan he was as good so Mr. was as good as Mr. Ames thought it was. On my telling him that Mr. Ames offered to guatantee me ten per cent. he said that I was safe enough then, and I made no further inquiry, but went to Mr. Ames and told him that I would take the stock. He said he could not transfer i to me then but that it was at his home; that the first time he went home he would get it transferred to me and let me have it. I therefore paid him over the $1,000 and took his accountable receipt for it, he saying at the time he gave it to me, that if at any time I got sick of it he would take it back and pay me back my money and ten per cent Before he went home I had occasion to go home o Pittsfield, and while there Mr. Edward Learned, a friend and neighbor of mine, who was then, I believe, an officer in the Kansas Pa-cific railroad, came to my office and told me of a suit which Duff Green had commenced or about to commence in the Pennsylvania courts against Mr. Ames and his associate, to get possession of the credit mobilier charter, claiming that it belonged to him and his associates, and wrongfully taken possession of by Mr. Ames and those connected with him. When I re-turned to Washington I told Mr. Ames what Mr. Learned had said to me, and told him that I did not want any such stock. He replied "Weil, you need not take it. I will pay you back your money and 10 per cent. interest if you pre-fer." I told him that I did. He thereupon settled with me in that way, allowing me interest and paying back the money. In the meantime, and before I went to Pittsfield, he had paid me a dividend once; I do not know how much it was, but I think it was about 35 per cent. Whatever it was I allowed him in the set tlement, he paying me over the balance only. This was the end of the transaction. The stock was never transferred to me at all. I have had no other transaction with the credit mobilier or the Union Pacific railroad. Neither during this transaction nor before it, nor since its close, have I entertained any thought or purpose in connection with it, nor was anything ever suggested to me in that connection in any way directly or indirectly, having reference to any official conduct of mine in or out of Congress. Ner did anything in connection with it pass be-tween me and Mr. Ames, or any other person other than would naturally have passed had I purchased of him the Iowa railroad bond I endeavored to get, or had I purchased any share of national bank stock or a United States bond, either of him or of any backer outside of Congress. Before and up to that time I do not remember to have heard the credit mobilier mentioned, or any matter touching the Pacific railroad since the legislation of 1864, under which it was then being constructed; nor did I know of Mr. Ames' dealings with any other person in or out of Congress. In closing this statement of all that did occur in this transaction, I desire to add that, although I have never desired or sought to conceal in any way anything that I have done in this matter, I have never made or authorized any public statement in reference to it before to-day, feeling that I could patiently wait until your committee should call upon me for this statement. Nevertheless there did get into print, without my authority or knowledge, a private note writ-ten by me to a friend in New York, thanking him for voluntarily and on his own responsibility denying the statement in the New York Sun that Mr. Oakes Ames had, for corrupt purposes. given me stock in the credit mobilier. I desire to make that note a part of this testimony, in order that all I have said, as well as all that I have done in reference to this matter, may become a part of t his statement. The note is as follows: The hote is as follows:

PITTSPIELD, Mass., Sept. 11, 1572.

My Dear Ser: I thank you for denouncing as a false libel the charge of the New York San, so far as I am concerned. Neither Oakes Ames nor any other man, dead or alive, ever gave me directly or indirectly, a permy of the stock of the "credit mobilier," or of any other corporation in this world. I never owned a dollar of any stock or any property of any kind that I did not pay the full value of, with my own money, carned with my own labor. Truly yours.

money, earned with my own labor. Truly yours, H. L. DAWES To the best of his memory witness thought i was at the beginning of the December session 1867, that he let Mr. Ames have the $1,000. Th dividend was paid to him in about three weeks afterwards. The transaction was rescinded in January, 1868. Knew nothing of the market value of that stock. When Mr. Ames said he would guarantee him (witness) 10 per cent., he thought that would make it a good investment. THE FOLLOWING LETTERS

Washington, January 13, 1873.

Gents: I propose to show and expect to prove by competent evidence that a large share holder in the U. P. railroad company, and by one who is also share holder in the credit mobilier of America, testified in a judicial proceeding (and admitted allunde) that he hand used money and other valuable things, including U. P. R. R. Co. stock and "C. M. stock to bribe members of Congress to inaugurate, influence, and carry through, by means of bribery and corruption, legislation by Congress in the interest of railroad corporations, and in order to lay the foundation for the introduction of such proof, and as tending also to prove the substance of the issue I ask that the records in an action entitled an action as follows, to wit: In the District Court of the 15th judicial District of the state of California, in and for the city and county of San Francisco—G. G. Elliott, plaintiff vs. Ben. Halladay et al., defendants. Also, an action in the same court, entitled an action as follows, to wit: John Nightengale, plaintiff, vs. Ben. Halladay et al., defendants, be sent for and read in evidence befor the committee. I suggest also that the committee examine as a witness in this proceeding W. H. ai., detendant, be sent for and read in evidence befor the committee. I suggest also that the committee examine as a witness in this proceeding W. H. S. Barnes, a counsellor-at-law, resident of the said city and county-of San Francisco, law partner of Hon. Eugepe Casserly, U. S. Senator for California, and attorney for the C. P. R. R., for reasons appearing in a carefully prepared address delived by him before a large concourse of people in said city at the instance and request of a high federal efficient and a short extract from whose speech I ask leave to send them and show to this committee.

W. HASTINGS.

Charles H. Neilson appeared before the committee in answer to the subpæna, and Mr. Neilson being sworn testified that he resides in New York and operates in stocks. Had held stocks in the credit mobilier company—first became the holder of the first hundred shares in 1867, December 26. Is a son-in-law of Mr. James Brooks. Witness produced his certificates of stock in the credit mobilier the first certificate being for 100 shares dated December 26th, 1867, and the second for 50 shares dated 29th February, 1868. Witness subscribed originally to the 100 shares.

Question.—Did you sign for them?

Answer.—I don't recollect.

The Hon. James Brooks, my father-in-law, put me in the way of getting that stock by advancing the money. All the dividends came to me and I got the money. Mr. Brooks did the business. He told witness he had a chance to put him in the credit mobilier, and did so. Witness was not present at the negotiation. Don't remember who furnished him the certificate.

Does not remember how he came in possession of the certificate.

when the money was advanced. Gave no note or bond. Did not think that necessary between father and son. Began to receive dividendvery shortly after getting the stock. Received one dividend in money amounting to $9,000. Did not remember when. Has repaid a portion of the money to Mr. Broeks. Purchased the second 50 shares with money borrowed from Sidney Dillon. Mr. Brooks furnished none it. Thinks he paid over par for the last 50 shares of stock. Mr. Brooks has had no connection with the last 50 shares in any way. The whole stock, 150 shares, belonged to me, and al the dividends were mine. Mr. Brooks had no ownership in any of them; he simply advanced $10,000. There was no understanding that he was to derive any benefits from the stock; on the contrary, it was understood that witness was to have the whole of it for his own use.

By Mr. Niblack: - Mr. Brooks originally men-tioned the matter to witness, and stated at the time that he had the power of putting witness in the credit mobilier, but made no explanation beyond ming he did not care to hold the shares himself. The money was an advancement by Mr. Brooks in the ferm of a speculation on the eccount of witness.

By Judge Merrick:—Witness had no under-standing that the $10.000 advanced could be paid back out of the dividends of the concern. THE DEATH OF NAPOLEON III. The Remains Laying in State.

The body of the ex-Emperor Napoleon has been embalmed and is laying in state at Chiselhurst. The remains have been placed in the coffin and the corpse dressed in the uniform of a field marshal. The upper lip is bare, the moustache having been cut off to facilitate the taking of a placer cast of the features. The taking of a plaster cast of the features. The beard which remains is brown and bushy. The features are stern and care-worn, and have an expression of pain. The grand cordon of the Legion of Honor lies across his breast. The hands; which are ungloved, are disposed in an easy and natural manner, the right clasping the left. On the fourth finger of the left hand is a ring with several diamonds which was placed there by the Empress. A small cross of exquisite workmanship lies on his breast, and on the corpse are placed three sprigs of holly. STOKES still occupies the condemned cell on the ground floor of the Tombs in New York Warden Finley states that he will not be removed to his old quarters, except in case of a stay of proceedings. This is a rule established by long custom, and the authorities see no rea son to deviate from the rule. Stokes is said to have suffered great "mental anguish" after h was convicted, but it is not probable that hi pain was as great as that of Fisk, who, when he was shot through the bowels, compared the sensation to "a green-apple belly-ache."

The bill of exceptions by the counsel of Stokes will be presented probably to-day. It holds that the court erred in not sustaining a chal-lenge against one of the jurors; in permitting hearsay evidence of Francis Cards; in permiting allusions to the former trial by the prosecu-ion; in not admitting the offer to show that the prisoner was anxious to disclose his defence be fore the coroners inquest; in permatting proof of threats to be introduced at the close of the trial, ruling out the offer to show that the prisoner was under apprehensions of Fisk's violence, and that it erred in excluding proof that Stokes was

It does away with the board supervisors, merging their duties into those of the aldermen; abolishes several commissions, and unites the several towns in King's county to the city of Brooklyn as additional wards, all of which is expected to result in a reduction of taxes and better government.

Great surprise followed a request of Attorney Phelps to postpone the case for one hour, for consultation with the proceduling counsel upon information in their possession, which would decide whether they would proceed with the case against Tweed. SEVERE WEATHER IN THE NORTH AND WEST. The Snow Blockade of the Railroads—Several Persons Frozen to Death.

DUBUQUE, Iowa. Jan. 12.—The Illinois Central and Dubuque railroad is now free, as is also the Des Moines valley railroad, between Fort Dedge and Des Moines. The Cedar Falls and Minnesota branch of the Illinois Central is bad-ly blockaded, snow drifts being found from 200 to 2,000 feet in length and from five to twenty feet deep. Men are working day and night, and will probably succeed in opening the road within a week. The body of an unknown man was found frozen to death at Nicolet, Iowa, last night, and two teams of horses frozen near Worthington. One of the drivers is missing, and the other so badly frozen that he cannot live. The stage between Sibley and Rock Rapids lost one passen ger, A. O. Jenkins, by freezing to death. remainder of the passengers escaped with but stight injuries. Two small boys were frozen to death near Hamboldt, lowa. Owing to the high-ways being badly blockaded by the storm, fears are entertained of a fuel famine at many of the interior towns.

THE DEAD EMPEROR. Arrangements for the Funeral. London, Jan. 13.-A dispatch from Chisel hurst announces that visitors continue to arrive there. The Empress Eugenie is seriously indisposed, and her condition causes much alarm among her friends. The arrangements for the funeral of the Emperor have now been completed. It will take place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The remains will be conveyed to the chapel in a hearse drawn by eight horses. The Prince Imperial will follow as chief mourner. Next will come the Princes of the Imperial family, the Prince of Wales, if present, members of the diplomatic corps, the aristocracy, the officers who were attached to the household of the Emperor, and the friends of the family, in the above named order. The ladies will proceed to church in advance of the funeral cortege. The procession will be of a very simple character. TERRIBLE EARTHQUAKE. Fifteen Hundred Lives Lost.

London, Jan. 13 .- A dispatch from Bombay says a report has reached that city that a terrible earthquake has occurred at Somghur, town of India, in the district of Baroba cominion, 114 miles north of Bombay. Fifteen hundred persons are said to have been killed in the town of Aline. Nothing has been heard from the surrounding country, but it is feared that there has been much additional loss of life.

AN INGENIOUS THIEF .- James M. Jaeger is to be tried before the superior court, this term, for stealing mules. Jaeger is a remarkable man. He was arrested in North Haven for stealing four mules from a farmer. Jaeger is an inventor, and seems quite likely to obtain the $10,000 prize offered by New York state for the best method of propelling canal boats by steam. His invention was described with a cut in the Scientific American. Jaeger has also before the patent office an application for a patent for detecting shallow water. It consists of an appliance placed on a vessel which will give no-tice of the approach of shallow water at any desired depth. It was for the purpose of getting money to pay for these patents that it is sup-posed Jaeger stole the mules. He is a singular looking man.—New Haven Palladium.

TEE RUMOR ABOUT ERIE AND GOULD .-- The New York Times says Erie declined Thursday by reason of the reports spread that Jay Gould had allowed a mortgage of $1,000,000 to remain on the Jersey property which he turned over to the company in restitution. The counsel of the company did not deny the rumor, but said that there were some drawbacks on the property cleared off. There is also a rumor, of some hitch in the final settlement between President P. H. Watson and Jay Gould. The latter agreed to clear off several outstanding claims against the property restored to the company at the time of settlement, and it is reported that he does not at present seem inclined to do so.

THE STRINGENT LIQUOR LAW in Massachusetts has had an alarming effect on the health of some of the citizens. The state constables, however, seem to be able to cure the malady which it has produced, provided they can get a correct diagnosis of the cases. Some four gallons of liquor in bottles having been extracted from the pillows, he was relieved at once. His pain was evidently sham. evidently sham.
